Alabama. Alabama Bryce Insane Hospital, at Tuscaloosa. Annual and biennial reports of the trustees and superintendent to the governor of the State. Annual: 15.-16., 1874-5, to 1875-6. Biennial: 1.-9., 1876-7 to 1893-4. 8°. Montgomery, 1862-94.

An act to establish a State hospital for the insane was approved Feb. 6, 1852. Supplemental acts relating to the hospital were approved Feb. 10, 1852; Feb. 6, 1856; Feb. 6, 1858; Feb. 21, 1860; Feb. 23, 1860; Feb. 8, 1861. Opened July 6, 1861. The word "Bryce" was added to the title in the 9. biennial report for 1892-3 and 1893-4 in commemoration of its first superintendent, Dr. Peter Bryce.

Alabama. Alabama Institute for the Deaf, Talladega. Annual and biennial reports of the board of trustees and officers of the Alabama Institute for the Deaf, in charge of the Alabama Institute for the Deaf, Alabama Academy for the Blind, and the Alabama School for Negro Deaf Mutes and Blind, to the governor. 12.-32., 1871-2 to 1891-2. 8°. Montgomery, 1872-92.

Reports for 1871-2 to 1875-6 are annual; 1876-7 to 1889-90 are called annual, though each report is for two years; 1890-91 and 1891-2 called biennial. The Alabama Institution for the Deaf and Dumb was established Feb. 4, 1860. By act approved Feb. 18, 1867, a school for the blind was established under the control of the same board of commissioners, and in 1870 the name was changed to "The Alabama Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind". By act of Feb. 19, 1887, the school for the blind was given the name of "The Alabama Academy for the Blind", and the institution for the deaf and dumb was changed to "Alabama Institute for the Deaf," by act of Feb. 28, 1887. The two institutions are now separate and occupy separate premises, but are controlled by the same board of trustees and managed by the same principal. In 1891 the "Alabama School for Negro Deaf Mutes and Blind" was established, and opened Jan. 4, 1892, making three institutions under the management.
